

A woman with blonde hair, wearing a blue hoodie, is leaning over a table, smiling and looking at a small card held by a child. The child is also looking at the card. On the table, there is a blue tablet displaying a grid of colorful icons. In the background, a large board with a grid of communication cards is visible. The cards contain words and corresponding illustrations, such as 'my/mine' with a person, 'am', 'to', 'be', 'feel', 'it' with a red square, 'is are', 'will', 'come', 'hurt', 'you', 'can', 'eat', 'drink', 'finish', 'your', 'do', 'go' with a green arrow, 'help', 'open', 'here', 'have', 'like', 'play', 'read', 'want', 'take', and 'tell'.
